

DRAG RACERS usually wear white asbestos suits — but really, Sergeant! David Hack, sporting the dress whites, was named “Drag Racer of the Year” last week by the American Hot Rod Racing Assn. and the American Hot Rod Assn. The Army recruiter for Tallmadge, he sponsored this “Christmas for Kids” Booth during Chapel Hill Mall’s fund raising day Oct. 14. Proceeds from the sale of his personalized T-shirts went to help underprivileged children in the area. With Sgt. Hack are Tallmadgeites Mike Bozzelli and Margaret Evans, who was working in an adjacent booth.
